Dear Shri. Puranikji,

At the outset, I take this opportunity to place on record my sincere thanks to you for your felicitations in the function held on Sunday, 18th May 2008, at Pune. This felicitation was from my own professional brothers and sisters and was therefore of special significance to me.

In my career as the IAS officer, I shall always sincerely endeavor to up-lift the image of our very dignified profession and spare no efforts to maintain the highest level of professionalism in my approach while serving the common folk in the state under my jurisdiction.

I very humbly acknowledge the receipt of an amount of Rs. 5000/- Pune Chartered Accountants' Society has presented to me on this occasion by the crossed cheque no. 741830 of even date drawn on Narayan Peth branch of Bank of Maharashtra.

Will you convey my personal regards to all our professional colleagues?

YOURS SINCERELY,

SD/-
